

It just takes someone to hear for Satan to go out and attack them

15 And these are the ones along the path, where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them. By destroying, distracting, or replacing with fleeting pleasures John 10:10

16 And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: the ones who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy. They hear without faith. Spiritually unprocessed Romans 8:13 - you can't endure by yourself

17 And they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away. No foundation to stand on

Satan knows our weaknesses and is crafty. He knows where to attack our weak spots. But so does God, and through His Spirit, helps us in our weaknesses.

Sudden joys that are ignited by emotions

Joy comes with trials - it takes time for joy to be saturated in our hearts.

Ephesians 3:17-19

Partial, shallow, indecisive faith.
They don't have a relationship

They abandon God consciously. Satan is not the only one to be blamed because they gave up on God Retreated, gave up, making no effort to cling to Christ and persevere.

If they truly were rooted in Christ, those 2 things aren't able to pluck them out because their joy, which is eternally in Christ Jesus, is firm enough to withstand them.

Instead of gazing upon Christ, they chose to follow the enemy's lies They don't rejoice in times of lament and trials (James 1)

It doesn't mean the story ends here, THANK THE LORD! there is always hope. Sometimes it's to allow God to prepare the fertile soil. "He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion"

In romans Paul, he knows God's job and he can detach himself.
